

STANDARD LANGUAGES IN EUROPE 2018 – Programme

Thursday, 6 December 2018

Time	Speaker & Title
13:00–13:15	Welcome and introduction
13:15–14:00	Alexandra N. Lenz (Vienna) Standard Languages in Europe – Perspectives from the German language area
14:00–14:45	Regula Schmidlin (Fribourg) Standard variation and linguistic attitudes in German speaking Switzerland: from the etic to the emic perspective
14:45–15:15	Coffee break
15:15–16:00	Rebekka Studler (Basel) Looking for attitudes: methods, analyses, and results
16:00–16:45	Anne-Sophie Ghyselen (Ghent) Attitudinal and perceptual research on Belgian Standard Dutch: advances, issues and perspectives
16:45–17:45	Round table / Synopsis
18:30–20:30	Get-together

Friday, 7 December 2018

Time	Speaker & Title
10:00–10:45	Chris Montgomery (Sheffield) Perceptions of non-standardness in an assumed 'Standard' English variety
10:45–11:30	Unn Røynealand (Oslo) What should you sound like to sound like you belong? A visual-verbal guise study of attitudes towards dialect and standard in Norway
11:30–13:00	Lunch break
13:00–13:45	Barbara Soukup (Vienna) Exploring language attitudes in the linguistic landscape of Vienna using the 'visual matched-guise technique'
13:45–14:30	Albrecht Plewnia (Mannheim) Measuring attitudes towards standard languages and their regional varieties: Design, methods and results of recent representative survey data from Germany
14:30–15:00	Coffee break
15:00–15:45	Wolfgang Koppensteiner (Vienna) Methodological approaches to Standard German in Austria: strategies of conceptualization
15:45–16:30	Stephan Elspaß / Elisabeth Buchner (Salzburg) What's the standard at Austrian schools? The students' perspective
16:30–17:30	Round table / Synopsis
19:00	Conference Dinner

Saturday, 8 December 2018

Time	Speaker & Title
10:00–10:45	Nicolai Pharao (Copenhagen) Understanding the standard: what can psycholinguistics tell us about the standard/non-standard dichotomy?
10:45–11:30	Christoph Purschke (Luxembourg) Attitudes in practice: Tracing multilingualism between experience and experiments
11:30–12:30	Round table / Final discussion
12:30–12:45	Outlook and farewell